ARE YOU READY FOR COLLEGE???

STUDENT'S STEP-BY-STEP PLANNING GUIDE

Discover the possibilities for life after high school. If you've decided to attend college, or even if you're not sure yet, you'll find this planning guide helpful as you prepare for the career of your dreams. REMEMBER. . . DON'T WAIT, START NOW!

JUNIOR YEAR - FALL

- ❑ Start investigating post-high school education opportunities and research the different types of schools and training opportunities available.
- ❑ Choose a specific career that you'd like to pursue and visit with your high school guidance counselor regarding schools that will fulfill your educational and career goals.
- ❑ Review your recent and current class schedules with your school counselor to verify that you have taken, or are taking, those classes that will help you succeed in college and in your career.
- ❑ Attend career and college fairs and presentations.
- ❑ List the schools you are considering and send for literature. Request their admissions and financial aid information also. Find out if the school requires ACT or SAT. Also ask how many applications they require, such as for admission, financial aid, and scholarships.
- ❑ Maintain good records during this entire process. Make copies of everything you send.
- ❑ Read all college materials you receive carefully. Decide what you want from an institution: major, location, athletics, reputation, etc. Then, compare the requirements for admission and financial aid. (The College Comparison Sheet, found on the next page, should be helpful to you.)
- ❑ If you did not take the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT) in the 10th grade, take it now to prepare for college admissions tests and to establish eligibility for the National Merit Scholarship.
- ❑ Acquire a study guide for the ACT/SAT and start to prepare for the test.

JUNIOR YEAR - SPRING

- ❑ Take the SAT and/or ACT (depending on what is required by the institutions you're interested in attending.) Your high school guidance counselor can provide you with the test dates and descriptive brochures.
- ❑ Start to narrow your list of post-high school options. Make plans to visit the facilities that are most appealing to you.
- ❑ Research scholarship opportunities and visit at least two types of colleges; i.e., large/small, community college/university, academic/technical.
- ❑ Contact organizations sponsoring scholarships that you're eligible for and request information.
- ❑ Develop a resume of high school activities and awards, if you haven't already done so, and update as needed.
- ❑ Find a summer job to set aside money for school.
- ❑ Start submitting applications to schools of your choice. Some colleges will accept applications once your junior year is completed. Keep copies of everything you send.

SENIOR YEAR - FALL

- ❑ Double check that you are taking the courses that will meet the admissions requirements of the post-high school institution that you are planning to attend.
- ❑ Take the SAT or ACT again if you need a higher score to meet admission requirements, to be eligible for certain scholarships, or if you didn't take it your junior year.
- ❑ Apply to the colleges you are considering EARLY. Generally, during December, January, or February you may apply for regular admission.
- ❑ Watch for important scholarship and financial aid information and visit your counselor for scholarship opportunities and applications. Be aware of deadlines and plan accordingly.
- ❑ Think about what you want to say in your college essay.
- ❑ Ask teachers to write letters of recommendation for you if they are required for admission or scholarships.

SENIOR YEAR - WINTER

- ❑ Work with your parents to collect financial aid information and attend financial aid workshops together.
- ❑ Pick up a financial aid application and submit. The most commonly used form in Idaho to seek federal financial aid is the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Get it ready and mail the FAFSA after January 1. You may also need to fill out a separate form for institutional or state aid.
- ❑ Keep working on scholarship and financial aid applications. Remember to respond immediately to any requests for more information or for additional documents in your financial aid application.
- ❑ Who's home from college for the holidays? Visit with them about their college experience.
- ❑ Remind your parents to prepare their income tax statements as early as possible, since a photocopy of their return must be sent to most schools to which you have applied.

SENIOR YEAR - SPRING

- ❑ Read all of your mail!! There may be important news.
- ❑ You should be hearing from colleges now. After you receive letters of acceptance and financial aid awards, decide which school you'll attend.
- ❑ Mail in your acceptance form and deposit check as soon as possible. Pay attention to all deadlines and make sure that your applications are sent in on time. Ask about campus housing deadlines, specifically, because student housing fills up quickly.
- ❑ Review the financial aid package of the school of your choice with your parents. Be sure you understand each type of aid offered. Schedule an appointment with the school's financial aid director if you have questions. Don't forget to sign the financial aid award letter and return it by the deadline.
- ❑ Notify the financial aid office of the scholarships that you are receiving.
- ❑ Decline offers received from other institutions or organizations in writing.
- ❑ Complete any separate applications for loans you decide to accept.
- ❑ Participate in orientation programs for incoming freshmen offered by the school of your choice.

Congratulations on graduating from high school
and good luck in your new adventure!

HOW DO I AVOID SCHOLARSHIP SCAMS?

If you have to pay money to get money, it's probably a scam.

Finding financial aid is no simple task. Financial aid experts advise students to be prepared to put in hours of research and paperwork. Unfortunately, many students and their families are overwhelmed by the work involved and are still unaware of the free sources of financial aid information. They end up paying hundreds of dollars to companies offering to help them find money for college. These services use information about the student and family to provide information about scholarships for which the student "may" be eligible. In addition to providing scholarship source lists, some of these services claim to actually help with students' applications, or "do the work for you."

People who have paid for such services report problems, such as out-of-date scholarship contact names and addresses, or scholarships that are strictly for people of another race, gender, or age group appearing on a "personalized" list furnished by the service. Some of the listed scholarships are for specific disciplines and many students are ineligible. Many sources on the lists actually turn out to be either loan programs or contests. Some fraudulent companies require the student to apply for every scholarship or grant on the company's list and to provide proof of rejection for each one before giving any refund, conditions that are not disclosed until after the student pays the up-front fee. Because many of the sources on the lists don't provide scholarships or have expired deadlines, it may be impossible for consumers to obtain the required rejection letters.

Be wary of scholarships with an application fee, scholarship-matching services who guarantee success, advance-fee loan scams, and sales pitches disguised as financial aid "seminars." Compare the private search company's offer to the information available before paying for this information. About 95 percent of college aid comes from state or federal government agencies. If students are suspicious of a scholarship offer, they should visit their high school guidance counselor, or those out of high school should call or visit a college financial aid office.

IDAHO ATTORNEY GENERAL'S CONSUMER PROTECTION UNIT

According to the Idaho Office of the Attorney General, "students and their parents should realize that applying for college aid is hard work and that only the student can complete applications, gather recommendations, and write the essays required. No company is going to do all that even for a large fee."

FOR EXAMPLE:

Only students and their parents have the information required to compute "official" financial need; to accurately complete government and institutional financial aid forms; to understand their own goals and preferences; and to sort through the thousands of scholarships, loans, and grants that are available each year.

Once a list of prospective sources of aid is assembled, only the student can complete the application materials. At a minimum, there will be an application form to fill out, as well as projects, a resume, a letter, or a collection of references.

The Idaho Attorney General's Consumer Protection Unit has a tip sheet that discusses services that offer financial aid searches for a fee. You can access this tip sheet by calling 1-800-432-3545, or go online to www.state.id.us/ag. Once you access this web site, click on Consumer Protection, click Tip Sheets and Information, and then click on Searching for Scholarships.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

BYU-Idaho offers approximately 15 associate and 50 baccalaureate degree programs. Bachelors degrees are divided into two categories: integrated and specialized. Specialized bachelors degrees require students to complete 70 credit hours in their major area of study. This type of degree is the usual offering at colleges and universities. Integrated bachelors degrees are an offering unique to BYU-Idaho. Integrated degrees require a student to complete 45 credit hours in a major. The remaining credits can be tailored to a student's specific postgraduate intentions and interests. Integrated degrees give students a broader learning experience. For a complete list of majors, please visit www.byui.edu/majors.

CAMPUS LIFE

Life is meant to be experienced, not just observed. Student involvement is the cornerstone of a BYU-Idaho education. The Activities Program gives students opportunities to participate in a variety of organizations and events outside of class. The program is completely student run and involves 8,000 students. Elder Henry B. Eyring, former President of Ricks College, called the Activities Program, "leadership training of the broadest and most exciting kind." Students determine their level of participation in four categories: Arts, Enrichment, Physical, and Social. Whether students want to direct, coach, play, act, perform, lead, compete, serve, or just make friends, they will find an outlet in the Activities Program. To learn more, go to www.byui.edu/activities.

In addition to the Activities Program, students are involved in:

- Weekly devotionals
- Family home evening groups
- A variety of outdoor activities
- Student wards

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

BYU-Idaho exists to provide an education consistent with the religious and family values taught by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. We admit persons without regard to gender, race, creed, religion, national origin, age, or disability who meet the requirements; who agree to abide by the Honor Code and Dress and Grooming Standards; and who are otherwise qualified based upon available space.

In selecting a class of about 4,000 new freshman, the admissions committee considers the following: church and seminary activity (LDS), personal commitment to living the standards, academic preparation, ACT or SAT, out-of-class activities, and an essay.

THREE TRACK SYSTEM

BYU-Idaho is operating on an extended year-round basis to allow more students the opportunity to attend. One out of every three qualified students who applied to attend Ricks College in the late 1990s was denied admission due to lack of campus resources. The need for change was obvious.

Classes are offered on three semesters: Summer, Fall, and Winter. Every student attends two semesters (a track) and is off one semester each year. On the admission application, students rank their track preferences, and admission is based on the competitiveness of each track. A student's track offer at the time of admission will be that student's permanent track for the entire time at BYU-Idaho.

By the year 2006, BYU-Idaho's anticipated enrollment will be 11,600 on campus at any one time. By rotating tracks, the total number served in a calendar year will be 14,500. By accepting the Three-Track System, our students are creating the opportunity for nearly 3,000 more to attend each year.

ADVANCED OPPORTUNITIES LEARNING PROGRAMS

Students at Idaho colleges and universities may earn college credit for education completed while enrolled in the secondary system.

The College Board Advanced Placement (AP) Examinations: The College Board provides AP exams in a variety of subject areas. The tests are taken while you are still in high school.

The Educational Testing Services College Level Equivalency Program (CLEP) Tests: Some Idaho colleges and universities provide credit for CLEP General or CLEP Subject examinations, or both. CLEP General Examinations cover broad areas of study such as mathematics, history, etc. For more information on AP, CLEP and dual credit programs, contact your high school counselor. (Dual credit is coursework where a secondary student is enrolled in a college level course that is also counted as a secondary course for graduation purposes.)

Tech Prep: The Tech Prep program allows students to receive technical college credit for a high school professional-technical course (or combination of courses) that has been evaluated and determined to be equivalent to a technical college course. For more information, contact your high school counselor.

The institution you plan to attend may also offer credit based on other criteria. For more information, contact the college or university.

INTERSTATE PROGRAMS FOR IDAHO STUDENTS

In some specialized fields of study, Idaho has too few students to warrant the establishment of expensive programs. In order to provide Idahoans a full range of educational opportunities at a reasonable cost, the state has established the following programs in cooperation with other states.

MEDICINE

University of Washington School of Medicine: The Washington Wyoming-Alaska-Montana-Idaho (WWAMI) Regional Medical Education Program allows a limited number of Idaho students the opportunity to study medicine using the combined resources of the University of Idaho and the University of Washington School of Medicine in Seattle. Idaho partially subsidizes the cost of fees and tuition for each Idaho student admitted to the program. For more information, contact the WWAMI Medical Education Program, University of Idaho, Box 44207, Moscow, ID 83844, (208) 885-6696, www.webs.uidaho.edu/wwami.

University of Utah School of Medicine: A limited number of Idaho residents are admitted to this medical education program under an agreement with the University of Utah. Idaho partially subsidizes the cost of tuition and fees for each Idaho student admitted. For residency certification, contact Office of Enrollment Services, Idaho State University, P.O. Box 8270, Pocatello, ID 83209, (208) 282-3940, <http://uuhsc.utah.edu/som>.

IDAHO RURAL PHYSICIAN INCENTIVE PROGRAM

The 2003 Idaho Legislature established the Idaho Rural Physician Incentive Program to encourage primary care physicians to practice in medically underserved areas of the state. Beginning with the Fall 2003 semester, all first-year medical education students will be assessed a fee equal to 4% of the annual average medical support fee paid by the state. The fee collected by the State Board of Education will be deposited into the Rural Physician Incentive Fund to repay the educational debts of rural physicians who practice primary care medicine in medically underserved areas of the state that demonstrate a need for assistance in physician recruitment.

VETERINARY MEDICINE

The Washington-Oregon-Idaho (WOI) Regional Veterinary Medical Education Program allows a limited number of Idaho students the opportunity to study veterinary medicine using the combined resources of the University of Idaho Animal and Veterinary Science Department, Caine Veterinary Teaching Center and Washington State University College of Veterinary Medicine in Pullman. Idaho partially subsidizes the cost of fees and tuition for each Idaho student admitted. College is an investment in your future, so it is important to plan ahead. Fortunately, there are many forms of financial aid to help you and your family manage the costs. While your high school guidance counselor can provide you with specific information, here are some general sources of what's available. Also, see page 10 for helpful tips on avoiding scholarship scams.

TYPES OF FINANCIAL AID Scholarships

College Work-Study

Money you can earn for school by working part-time for the college or university that you attend.

Loans

Borrowed money you must repay with interest.

GETTING FINANCIAL AID

- 1 To apply for federal financial aid, complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form during your senior year in high school. See your counselor for a copy of the form or download or complete the FAFSA online at <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/>. Make sure you are aware of important deadlines.
- 2 Academic institutions are not the only agencies offering scholarships, so check with local organizations, such as: your parent's place of employment; your church; civic or community groups such as American Legion, YMCA, 4-H, Elks, Masons, Kiwanis, Jaycees, Chamber of Commerce, and Rotary; government agencies; and foundations. Libraries and the Internet are good resources to research financial aid opportunities.
- 3 Talk with your counselor about potential sources of financial aid. (See pages 41-42 for scholarship opportunities offered by the State of Idaho).
- 4 Institutions offer a variety of scholarships and financial aid programs to assist students with continuing education costs. Contact the admissions and/or financial aid offices at the schools you are interested in attending to obtain information about financial aid opportunities. Idaho colleges and universities, specifically, offer a variety of scholarships and financial aid opportunities-See chart on page 42 for deadlines.

IDAHO CAREER INFORMATION SYSTEM (CIS)

The Idaho Career Information System (CIS) contains up-to-date information on U.S. and Idaho scholarships, loans, and other aid sources. CIS describes thousands of different sources of financial aid — many thousands of scholarships, loans, and grants. You can also get a list of scholarships, both Idaho-based and national, that match your education plans and personal characteristics. See page 5 for more information or visit www.idahocis.org. (get a user name and password from your school counselor).

RESOURCES FOR VETERANS

Colleges help veterans receive their "G.I. Bill" education benefits through their "Certifying Official" and "Veteran's Affairs" offices, frequently associated with the Registrar's or Financial Aid Offices at colleges and universities. Students eligible to receive VA education benefits should contact that office prior to registration to assure timely submission of claims. The Idaho Department of Education at (208) 332-6921 must approve each program offered by a school or company. If you want to know if you may receive benefits for a specific program, contact the nearest VA regional office at 1-800-827-1000.
